

GUIDELINES AND REGISTRATION

XXVII International Festival of Classical Theatre for Secondary School Students 24th -25th-26th May 2022

GUIDELINES

Liceo 'Cagnazzi' from Altamura (Bari) has decided to confirm the XXVII International Festival of Classical Theatre for secondary school students that, in compliance with the rules concerning the sanitary emergency, will take place at Mercadante Theatre and Liceo Cagnazzi- Altamura . The festival is included in the 2019-2022 Erasmus Plus 'On school stages' project. The drama workshops attendees will have to comply with the manner and timing that the Festival's organization will communicate by e-mail to the attendees. The event will entirely take place as a blended activity , both at a distance and on site (live and for the attendees that will not have the possibility to join the festival , at a distance , with a video) .

Liceo Cagnazzi will adopt a health protocol with specific measures against the Covid-19's spread. All the people who will join the festival, will have to respect all the rules in force against the Covid-19's spread and they are required to have a EU Digital COVID Certificate (Green Pass) . For this reason, the number of participants cannot exceed 25 students. The schools will have to find accommodation in a receptive structure that Liceo Cagnazzi can suggest if it is deemed appropriate.

Art.1 Liceo classico Cagnazzi from Altamura is organizing the XXVII "International Festival of Classical Theatre for Students", reserved to performances of a maximum duration of 50 minutes (live) or 15 minutes (video) that will be presented during the three evenings of the festival. The festival is opened to every Italian and European secondary school and hosts the performances made by the school drama workshops. It is possible to present works of Latin, ancient Greek, modern and contemporary well-known authors.

Art.2 The festival will take place on the 24th, 25th and 26th of May 2022 in the courtyard of Liceo Cagnazzi, Altamura and at Mercadante Theatre and in live streaming on Youtube and on the website dedicated to the Liceo Classico Cagnazzi's festival (<http://teatro.liceocagnazzi.edu.it/>). The performances will take place according to the programme made by the organization and will be introduced by the respective drama workshops .

During the Festival there will be moments of discussion and briefing in order to encourage the exchange of ideas and points of view concerning the value of the theatre which is considered inspirer of universal principles for the young European citizens.

It is important that also the jury, the festival's organizers and workers, the teachers, the directors and the people that played a role in the realization of the performances will attend these meetings.

Art.3 All the applications must be sent to the email address of the festival's secretary: rassegnateatralcagnazzi@gmail.com by Friday the 8th of April 2022 at the latest.

The educational project referred to the proposed performance and a short promo -video (a video of approximately one minute) of the performance must be sent by the 22nd of April 2022.

On the 2nd of May the names of the selected schools will be announced.

The result of the selection will be published on the festival's webpage and on Liceo Cagnazzi's webpage by the 6th of May 2022. The schedule of the performances will be also sent to the drama workshops' contact teachers. For the participating schools will be possible to express preferences about the date of the performance (24th, 25th, 26th of May); these indications will be taken into account in accordance with the needs of the organization. The schools that will join the festival at a distance they have to send their video by May the 13th 2022

Art.4 The participating groups must respect the timing indicated in the calendar that will be communicated by the organization.

Art.5 At the end of the festival the performances will be evaluated and graded by a jury composed of theatre experts, members of the association "Agita Teatro" and the head teacher.

Art.6 The jury will award (with an unquestionable judgment) the deserving performances and the actors who will excel. Prizes consisting of props, for the theatre laboratory's needs, will be given to the schools that will rank first, second and third. There will be certifications, gadgets and possible special mentions for all the participants. A certificate of attendance will be given to every school taking part in the Festival

Art.7 The jury will give the prizes and the awards to the selected schools on the last evening (scheduled for Thursday 26th of June 2022), at the end of Liceo Cagnazzi's drama club performance, out of the competition.

Art.8 - The festival's participation involves the acceptance of all the rules specified above. Moreover, the groups that will join the festival will have the possibility to enjoy virtual tours of the city and of the area that host the festival by Liceo Cagnazzi's students .
